COMPILED AND PUBLISHED BY THE SENIORS C

FOREWORD

Through the twenty years of Fenwick's existence the school has grown by leaps and bounds. The enrollment has more than tripled, the classes have come and gone, the faculty has grown and changed, a new building is rising, but there still prevails the same spirit of unity and cooperation which began on opening day in 1929. Let this yearbook stand, not just as a monument to the school, but more as a monument to the spirit of Fenwick. With no further ado, we present to you, the students of Fenwick, your yearbook — Blackfriars of 1949.

THE FACULTY

In the essential make-up of any school there are two main factors, the students and the faculty. Without these there could be the most beautiful of buildings, the most modern of classrooms, the latest in equipment, and still there would be no school.

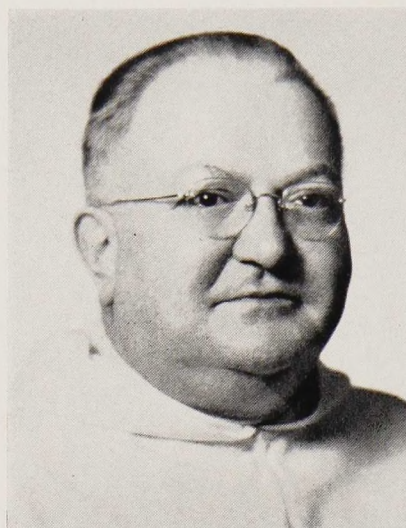

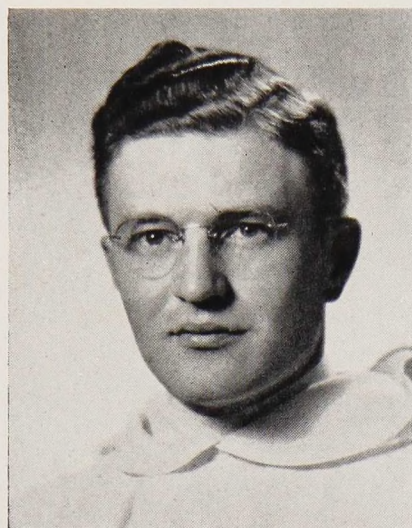

In material production there must be the best of ingredients to turn out the best products possible. So also in education. Through the years Fenwick has graduated top men. Here is the main factor, the faculty of Fenwick High School.

THE CLASSES

Previously we mentioned the two main factors of a school, the faculty and the students. We showed you the faculty, and the next pages, like a magic mirror, show you yourselves.

Day after day you walk through the halls, sit through classes, swim and play basketball with your classmates. How often do you look at the guy who bumped into you, who throws spit balls when you recite, who messes up your best free-style and who fouls your trickiest shots? Maybe he's the best pal you've ever had; maybe he's bigger than you and you want to get even with him for all he's done. Here's your chance. The picture can't fight back. Hit him, slug him, do anything you want. Here he is.

CLASS OFFICERS

In the years to come Fenwick can look back upon the achievements of the class of '49 and reflect that theirs is a record to be proud of.

As freshmen they had a perfect record on the football field, rolling over every opponent by a large score.

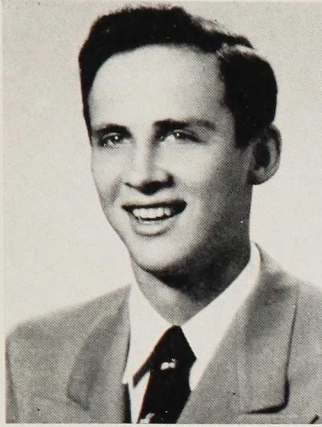

During sophomore year they welcomed the freshmen to Fenwick with a 3 week initiation period followed by a huge freshman-sophomore party. Larry Specht, Bob Carstens, Tom Frainey, Jack Kennedy, Tom Powers, and Dick Aman, the backbone of the '49 squad, led the junior swimming team to the Catholic League Championship.

Under the chairmanship of Jim Gearen the Class of '49 staged a successful Junior Prom at the Edgewater Beach Hotel. Father Malone's junior Religion class realized a profit of $470 from Amateur Nite — a new record.

It was under the co-captainship of seniors Ed Lejeune and Arnie Burwitz that Fenwick smashed to the Catholic League Football Championship. Jim Strojny, Joe LaPorte, Frank Zaucha, Jim Higgins, Tom McCormick and Jim Barrett all helped to run up the magnificent record of nine victories and only one defeat, and that to Lindblom in the Prep Bowl Game. Playing in one of the most successful basketball seasons in recent years were Jim Shanahan, captain of the heavies, Jim McCabe, Jack Considine, and Hugh Gorman, captain of the lights.

The class officers, Larry Specht, president and captain of the swimming team; Tom Barrett, vice-president; Dick McGrath, secretary; and Jim Shanahan, treasurer; the seniors in the rifle club, servers' club, radio club, dramatic guild, on the Blackfriars and Wick staffs, on the debating team, and in the minor sports, track, tennis, and golf, all leave a record that will stand out in the annals of Fenwick High School.

THE JUNIORS

Rev. M. A. Kavanaugh, O. P., Moderator of the Class of '50 and the Junior Class Officers, John Lattner, Bob Rigali, Norm Canty, and Bill Jenks.

The Class of 1950. Three years ago this September close to three hundred bewildered looking Freshmen came through the big oak doors of Fenwick and wandered aimlessly through the halls. The next day the upperclassmen came and gazed in wonder at the little sprouts that caught between their legs and brushed senior shoe tops with their belt buckles. No, they didn't look like much then, but look at them now. The Junior Class has something to be proud of. Not only did they come up through three years of Fenwick, but they did it royally. Already boasting an All-State football player in Johnny Lattner, they have a potentially great team for next year. Besides Lattner there will be five other major-letter men from last year's championship team returning — Bob Rigali, Norm Canty, Joe Wojtys, Neil Carrothers, and Don Weaver. Four of these men returned to the spotlight again when basketball season began — Lattner, Rigali, Canty, and Weaver. These four, teamed with Bob Conrad, accounted for a good share of the points during this year's cage season. On the swimming team they had Dick Wehman, Joe Happ, Dick Hohman, Ed Vertuno, Dick Micaletti, and Ned Dougherty to bolster the squad. The class wasn't behind the door when the brains were passed out, either. It has several consistent honor roll men and always has a long list for honorable mention. It looks like another class the school can be proud of — that Class of 1950.

THE SOPHOMORES

Under the leadership of Father Malone the Class of '51 has made a brilliant start in their life at Fenwick. They have a large representation in all the extra-curricular organizations.

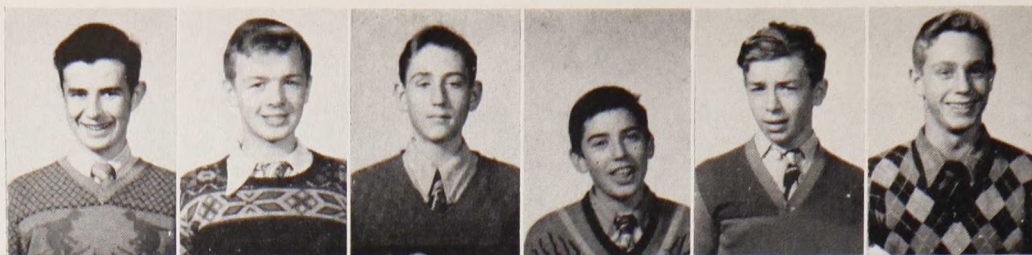

During their first year the class came up with several good athletic prospects. They seem to shine exceptionally well in basketball, with four of Coach Shay's first six junior players being sophomores — Jerry Drella, Bob Giroux, Tom Sullivan and Lou Mehalek. Drella played quite a bit in his freshman year — a thing not often done. On the football team they're not short-handed either. Tom Harte's educated toe was a big help during last year's season. Coach Lawless also found some willing substitutes in Lou Mehalek, Tom Losos, Chuck Collins, "Teddy" Baer, Tom Carstens, and Guy Kowalski. Regy Darley, a brilliant young free-styler, was the spark plug of the Junior Swimming Team. With these men and the rest of the Class of '51 Fenwick has another great class in the making.

Sophomore Class Officers, Tom Carstens, Tom Harte, Reg Darley, and Fred Baer, greet Rev. J. D. Malone, O. P., their moderator.

THE FRESHMEN

Under the able leadership of the Reverend J. G. O'Connell, O.P., the class of '52 ran up a record of noteworthy achievements.

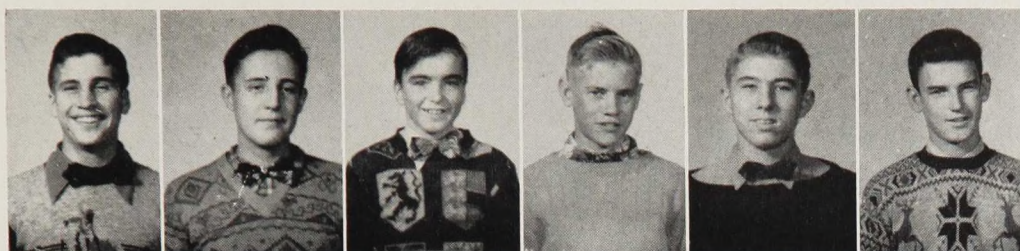

After a spirited election the freshmen chose Tom McKenna, president; Jack Cywinski, vice president; Terrance Moran, treasurer; and Bill Hayes, secretary.

The freshman football team, one of the largest squads ever out, had a successful season. Coached by Dan O'Brien they whipped Loyola 32 to 0 and tied De Paul 7 to 7. Also the freshmen were well represented on the swimming and basketball squads.

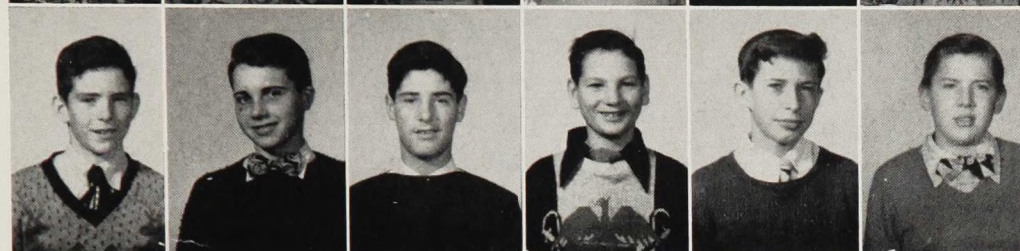

Interest was shown in school activities. Amassing a total of 72 subscriptions, freshman class 1E led the school in the annual New World drive. The freshmen took part in intermurals, the serving club, the camera club, the radio club and the rifle club.

They were a credit to the school.

With the opening of Fenwick in 1929, the school athletic teams began their long string of victories in all sports, leading to championships galore. All through her glorious career, Coach Tony Lawless has lead Fenwick teams to the top. During this year, the twentieth year of athletic history, the teams upheld Fenwick's reputation on the gridiron, on the basketball court, in the tank, and in each of the minor sports.

ANTHONY R. LAWLESS, B. A.

THE COACHING STAFF

Coming to Fenwick in 1929, Coach Tony Lawless has given the greater part of his life to the school. It can truly be said that it has been a life well spent. Coaching almost every type of athletics, Tony has led Fenwick athletes to nearly every kind of championship.

The Reverend J. N. Morgenthauer, O.P., took over the job of athletic director in 1942. Since that time, Father has had a noteworthy record in this position. During his reign, he has held several offices in the Catholic League Organization.

Three years ago, the Reverend W. E. Conley was given the job of assistant to Father Morgenthauer. In addition to the duties that go with this task, Father has coached the golf team, running up a column of won and lost figures, decidedly in Fenwick's favor.

DAN O'BRIEN
Swimming Coach and Trainer

Head Line Coach Larry Flynn came to Fenwick ten years ago. A former team mate of Coach Lawless, Larry played professional football for five years, was head coach at St. Patrick, and line coach at Loyola. The Fenwick lines themselves stand as a fitting monument to his able leadership.

The newest member of the Fenwick coaching staff is Basketball Coach Bill Shay. Coming to Fenwick from De La Salle High School, Mr. Shay found the remains of a senior team that finished up a poor sixth in the Catholic League and a junior team that finished up only a little better. In one year he did the impossible, whipping both teams into top quintets. Mr. Shay deserves a round of applause from all the Fenwick fans.

Shortly after graduating from Fenwick with the class of 1934, Dan O'Brien returned to his Alma Mater to assume the duties of trainer. Since that time Dan has taken on the coaching of the freshman football team and the swimming team. This last is his greatest accomplishment. Year in and year out Dan has come up with a championship team, a tribute worthy of his coaching.

THE FOOTBALL TEAM

... Best in Years

At the start of the 1948 season, the Chicago newspapers termed the Fenwick team, "green, but willing". Not only was the team willing, but it willed hard enough to win the Catholic League Championship . . . . Winning eight games in a row, the Friar eleven faced De Paul Academy in Soldier's Field and beat them 9 to 6 . . . . The following week-end the team again trooped off to Soldier's Field, this time to play in the Chicago Prep Bowl. Meeting a conquering opponent for the first time in the season, Fenwick dropped the title game to Lindblom High School 13 to 7.

ED LEJEUNE

JOHN LATTNER
All-State right end

TOM McCORMICK

ARNIE BURWITZ
Co-captain and fullback

The outstanding star in the Fenwick line-up was end-halfback, Johnny Lattner. Although only a Junior, John was an able substitute at end in his sophomore year and in his junior year attained the highest honor possible, that of being named to the All-State team of Illinois. Along with this title, he was named to the All-City team, the All-Catholic team and the All-North Section team. . . . Another brilliant player was center, Jim Higgins. Jim was named to the Herald American All-City team and to all the honor teams below that . . . Each of the other members of the squad was either named to, or given honorable mention on at least one of the "All" teams.

With a cloud of dust and a hearty hi-ho Rigali, Bobbie is off to a championship.

—Chicago Sun Times Picture.

FENWICK 9

DE PAUL 6

On the morning of Nov. 21, Chicagoans rose to find the skies overcast, a sharp breeze coming in from the lake and a perfect day for football. Such was the setting for the clash between Fenwick and De Paul for the Catholic League football title.

If ever there was a ball game, that was it. Fans sat transfixed in Soldier's Field and watched two great high school elevens fight it out.

Taking an early lead, De Paul followers settled back to watch an easy win. Suddenly Fenwick came to life and displayed the power they were famous for. Driving, driving, Fenwick finally crossed the goal line on a run by Ed Lejune and Tom Harte placed one over to put the Friars ahead. In the second half Fenwick continued their relentless attack, and again they scored—this time it was on a safety. That was the ball game, and the Friars left the field, once more victorious.

... AND DROPS CITY TITLE

LINDBLOM 13

FENWICK 7

From all over the city of Chicago and its suburbs, came 80,000 football fans. Bands from a dozen or more of the high schools paraded the field. This was the day of days for high school football teams; this was the day of the Chicago Prep Bowl Game, the clash between the champion football team of the Catholic League and the champions of the Public League. This year it was Fenwick vs. Lindblom, and what a game.

Fenwick scored first, and Harte again repeated his boot of the previous week putting the Friars ahead 7 to 0. It wasn't long, however, before Lindblom struck back on a pass by Dale Samuels, their brilliant quarter-back. They failed in their conversion, and that's the way it was when half time rolled around, 7 to 6.

After that the Black and White seemed to falter before the bullseye passing of this remarkable Samuels. As one Chicago newspaper put it "the irresistible vs. the immovable", and this time it was the "immovable" that won out. Lindblom scored again in the second half on another pass, converted, and that was the way it ended, 13 to 7, in favor of the Public League Champions. Fenwick tasted bitter defeat for the first time in the year, completing an almost perfectly successful season, 9 wins against 1 loss.

CAGERS

In contrast to last year's season, the 1948-49 Fenwick Senior Basketball squad managed to finish in third place in the Catholic League North Section, to take third in the St. George Tournament, and pile up a 19-10 won and lost record.

Pacing the Seniors was center John Lattner, who netted 331 points in addition to his sparkling play off both backboards. As a climax, Lattner was placed on the Chicago Daily News' All-Catholic second team. Forward Jim McCabe, netting 283 points, was also an excellent shot and rebounder. Rounding out the team were Captain and forward Jim Shanahan, a good shot and defensive star, and guards Bob Conrad and Jack Considine, both capable ball handlers and shots. The Friars boasted of good reserve strength in forwards Norm Canty and Fred Baer, and guard Donald "Dudley" Weaver.

In the pre-league contests Fenwick amassed 9 wins against 3 losses. The Friars also won two other non-league contests with Aquinas and the Alumni later on. In league play, Fenwick was victorious in 8 contests, but lost 6. Then, in the Catholic league play-offs, the Black and White lost to St. Elizabeth 34-35.

FENWICK JUNIORS

Capturing the North Section crown, climaxed what was probably the most successful season a Friar Junior squad has enjoyed. In their first year under coach Bill Shay, they finished with a very impressive record of 21 wins against 5 losses.

The Friar Juniors won 7 straight games before losing to St. Rita's in a very close game 37-33. Led by Sullivan the Friars downed Loyola 50-36, but were beaten by De Paul in the Preseason Tournament 30-26, ending the practice round with 8 wins and 2 losses.

The Friars started the league season with a 48-45 victory over a strong Iggies squad. Then they lost a heartbreaker to Holy Trinity in overtime 51-46.

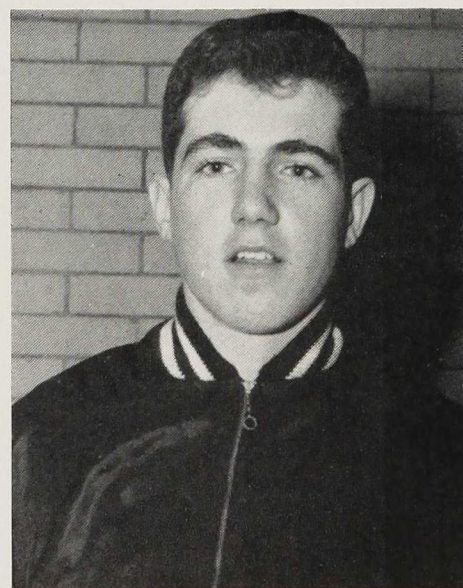

In a thrilling game the Friars, led by Gorman downed a stubborn St. Pat's outfit 42-41, and followed this victory with a 64-40 victory over St. Mel. St. Philip proved too much for the Friars, defeating them 58-43.

After downing Loyola 33-25, the Friars, led by Drella, knocked-off St. George in an exciting game 43-41.

Starting the second round, the Juniors beat St. Ignatius 41-36, and then outlasted Holy Trinity to win 44-42 on a basket by Mehalek in the closing seconds. The Friars followed with 2 easy wins, and then beat St. Philip 45-37. Hugh Gorman, all-Catholic center, was injured early in the game, and was unable to play for the remainder of the season.

Led by Drella, the Friars knocked-off Loyola and St. George to end the league season in first place.

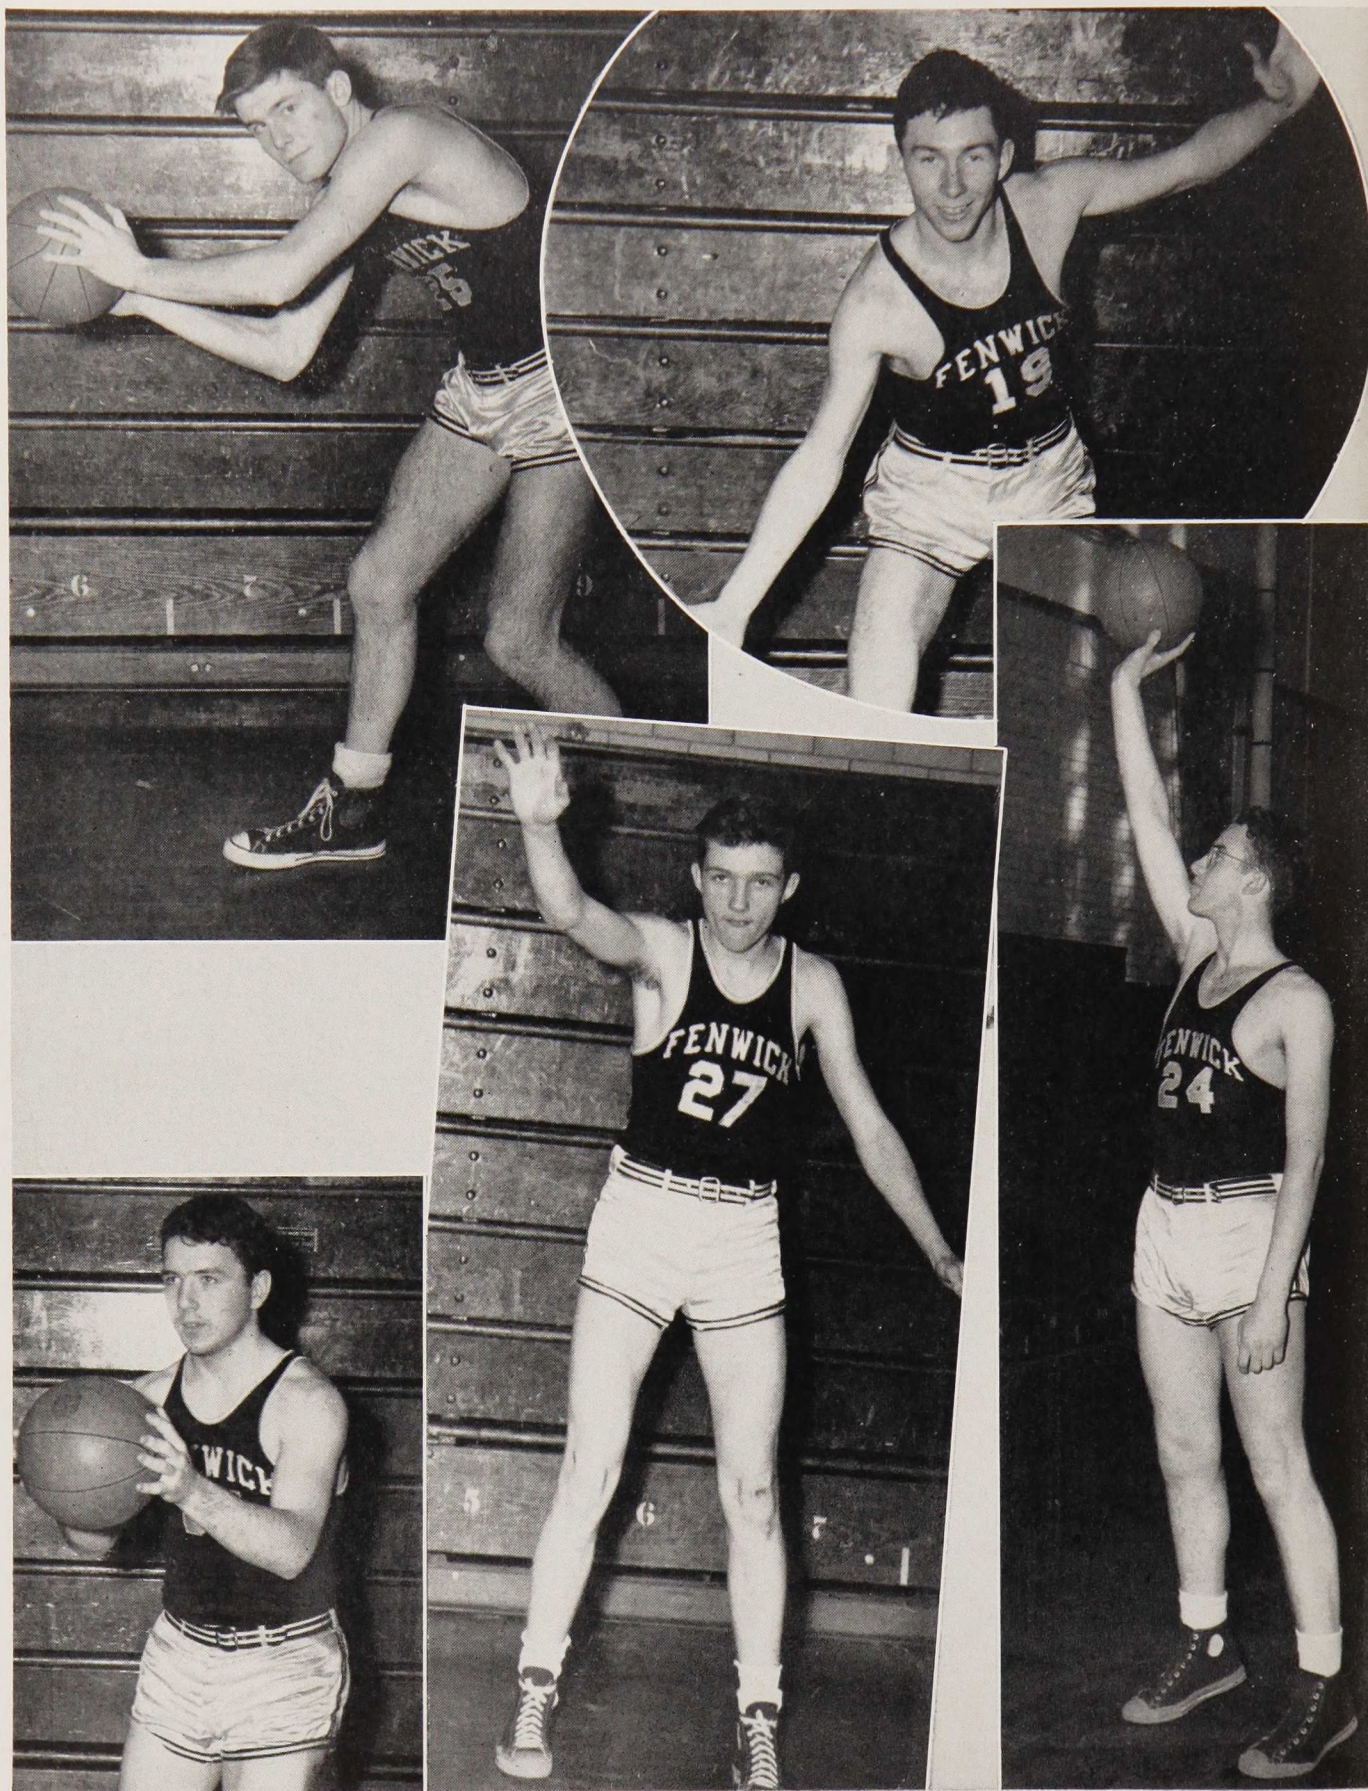

In the play-offs, the Friars easily downed St. George 43-33, but then ran up against a very strong Leo squad for the Catholic League championship. The Friars were no match for the powerful Lions, and fell 48-27.

SWIMMING

For Fenwick's 17th Catholic League Championship swimming squad, 1949 was a year of ups and downs. The '49 team, staffed by more seniors (11) than in any previous year, won 9 meets and brought home two more trophies for the school showcase. It also dropped its first meet since the spring of 1945, losing its Midwest Private School Championship to Culver M. A. of Indiana. The Friars were defeated in this meet

Captain Larry Specht and Coach Dan O'Brien

Bob Carstens, CHICAGO TRIBUNE MEET winner, checks his time with Dan.

Round and round we go, and where we stop we get wet.

Dick Aman, Bob Carstens, Tom Frainey, and Larry Specht, senior members of the team, gather round for a bedtime story.

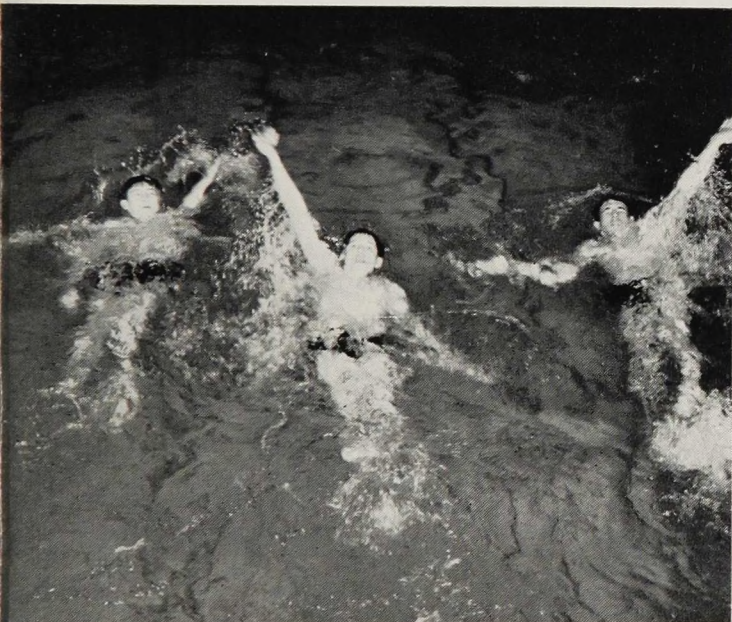

by the overwhelming numerical superiority of the Culver team, especially in the freestyle events, and by the loss of a series of close races. (Two weeks earlier, the Fenwick tanksters had spoiled Culver's unbeaten season in a duel meet, 43 to 32.) Bouncing back two weeks later, the swimmers walked off with the Catholic League crown, and wound up their season March 26 by sweeping the Loyola University relay meet, winning every event and scoring more than a hundred points.

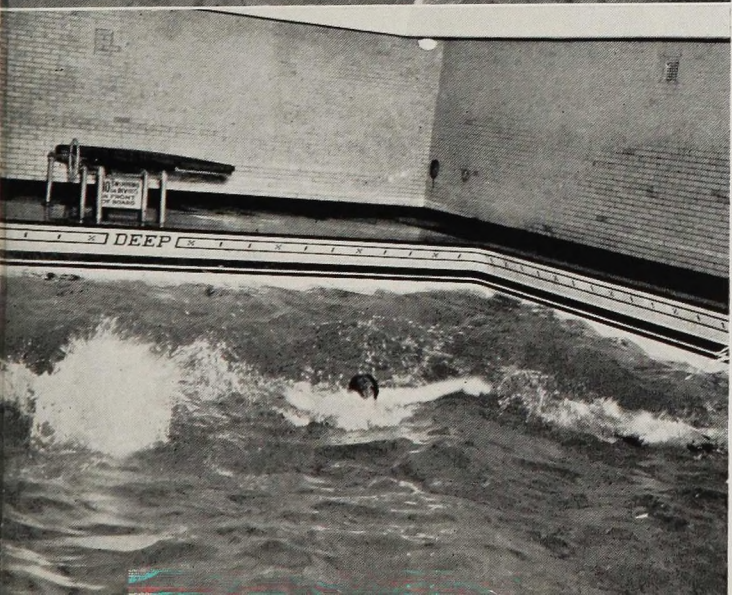

The Junior squad topped off an unbeaten season with their 7th straight win, by taking the Catholic League Junior Championship tilt. The '49 ers did a more thorough job than any team in the history of the meet, placing three men to an event and rolling up a total of 64 points. They then did their part towards winning the relay meet at Loyola.

The Senior team which coach Dan O'Brien led through the '49 season was in many respects the strongest ever assembled. Dan, who graduated from Fenwick himself in 1934, has been swimming coach for 7 years, and every year he has produced a championship squad. No one seems to know where the coach gets his material, but each year he manages to round up a little talent, which turns up five months later to be a superior team.

There is a reason for the success of the Fenwick swimming teams. Any team which coach O'Brien puts into a meet has one irreplaceable asset — it is always in the best of shape. The only thing Dan will take any credit for is that he makes his swimmers work. And this extra training has shown up time and again to win the close ones for the Friars. This is the reason why Fenwick swimmers have so often trounced teams they had no business to beat.

Howie Scaman, Joe Happ, and Tom Frainey work out at backstroke.

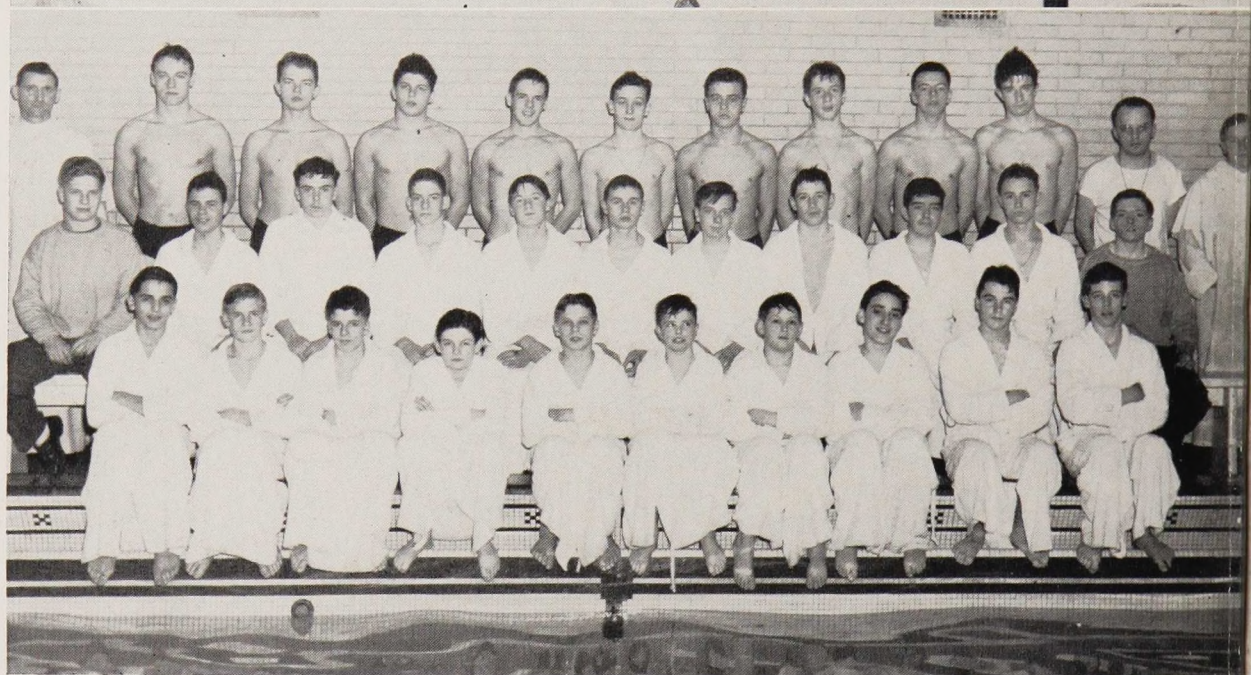

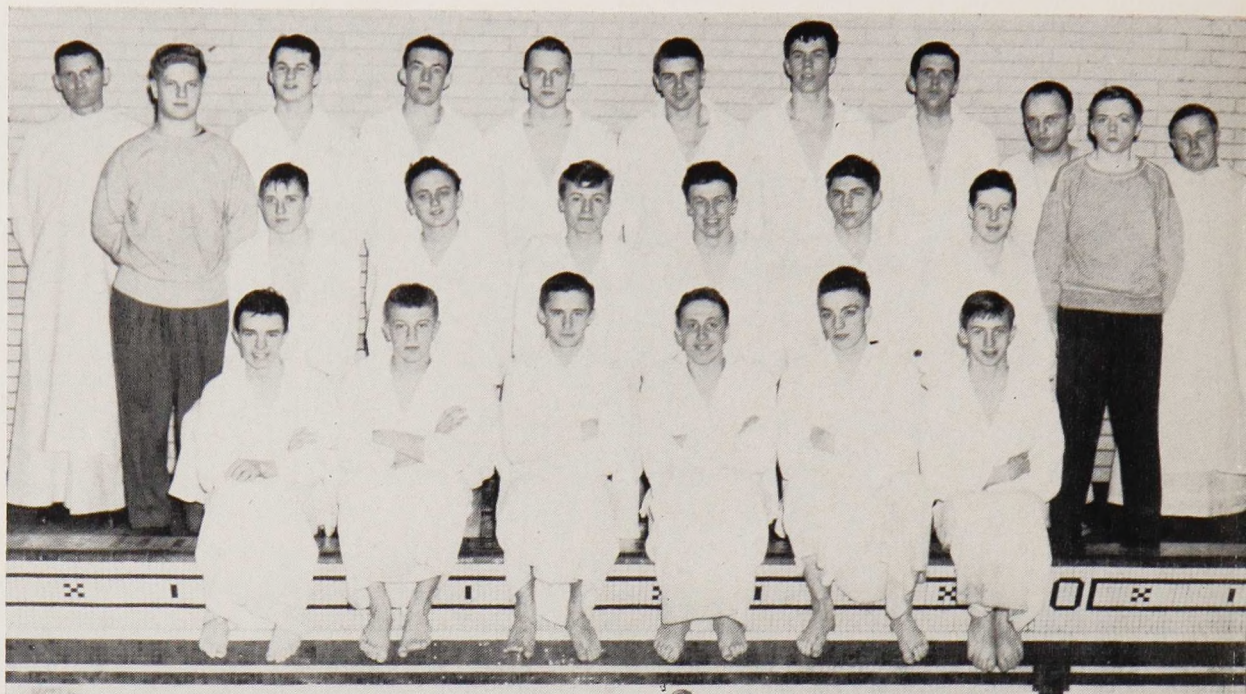

Just like butterflies.

Happ and T. Frainey in the 100-yard backstroke, R. Wheman and H. Scaman in the 100-yard freestyle, R. Aman and P. Garrity in the diving, and B. Hancock, H. Doherty, J. Micaletti, and J. Dunn in the relays.

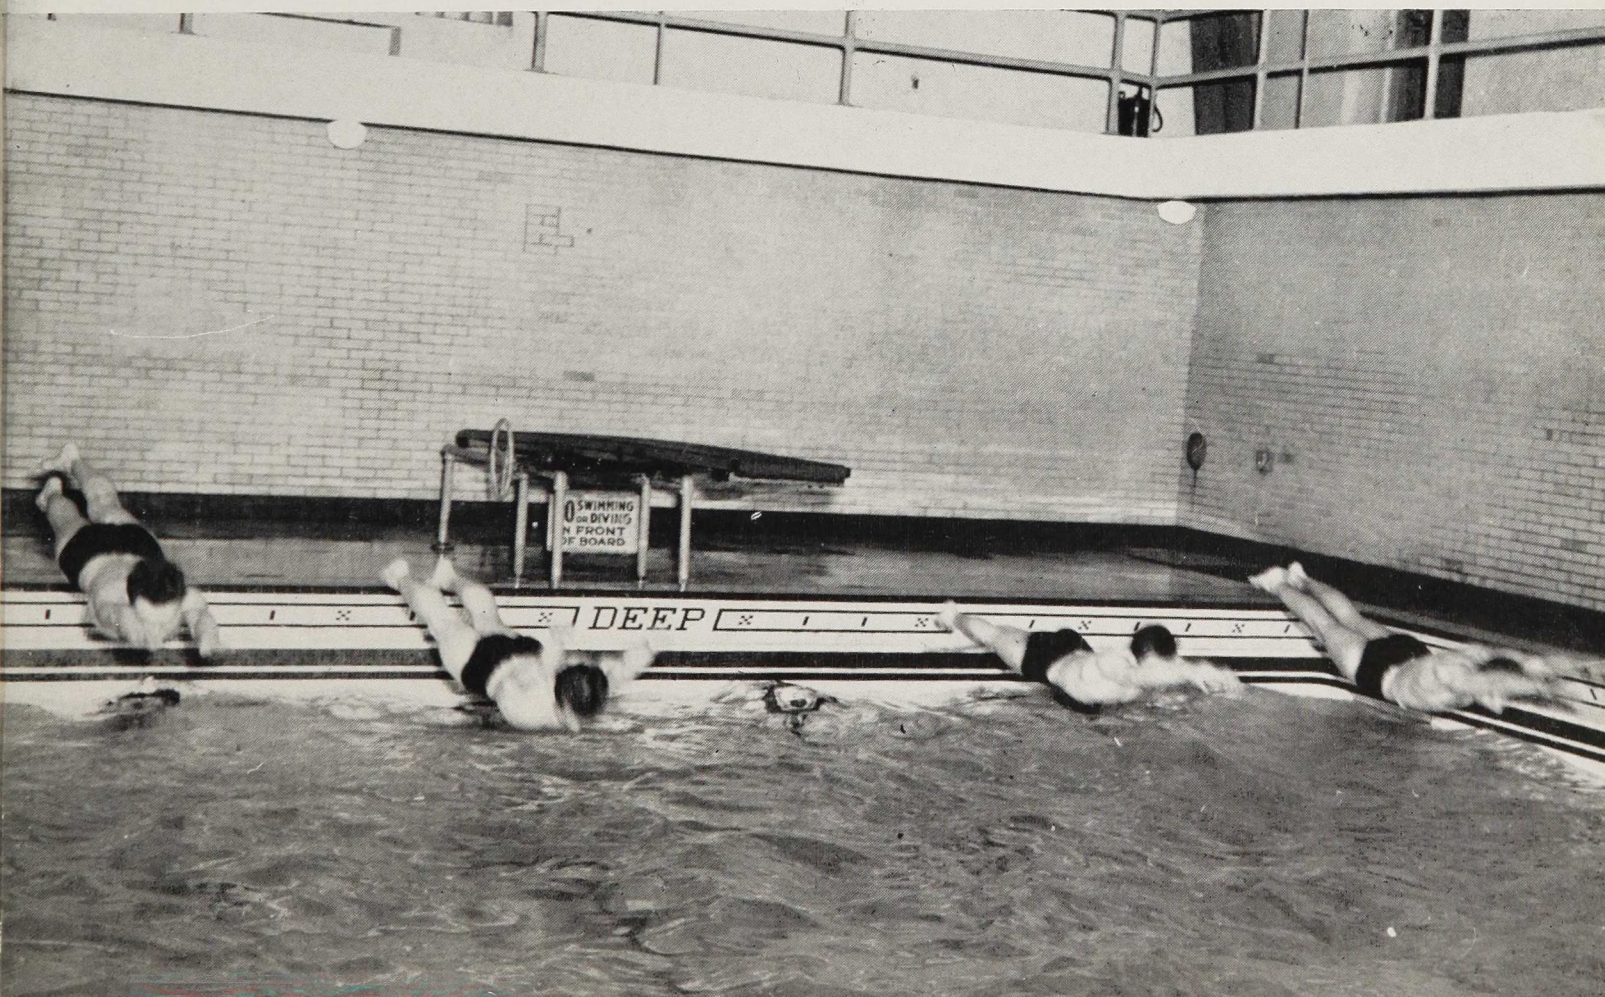

Then, on the nineteenth of February, the Friars journeyed to Culver, Indiana, to meet the toughest opponent they had faced in seven years. Much to the surprise of many, they dumped the favorite Culver team, 43-32, paced by the victories of Carstens, Happ, Scaman, and Aman, and the Fenwick medley relay team.

Two weeks later, however, when the Friars returned to Culver for the Midwest Private School Intersectional Championship Meet, which they had won all three years of its existence, Culver showed that it had all its reputed strength. The great depth of the Culver team, which enabled them to place almost two men to Fenwick's one, gave Fenwick its first defeat in four years, 68-49. The closeness of the meet may be seen from the fact that Fenwick's winning freestyle team was disqualified, preventing the score from being 66-59, which would have been only a seven-point margin.

Down, but not out, the mermen bounced back two weeks later to roll over their Catholic League opponents to take its 13th consecutive League title.

In the finals of March 20, Fenwick came through to win five firsts, two seconds, and a multitude of lower places. Happ, Specht, Aman, and Scaman were the individual champs, and the medley relay won in near record time. Carstens lost a heartbreaker in the breaststroke to place second, and Garrity was a runner-up to team-mate Aman in the diving. The only discordant note in the performance was the disqualification, on four counts, of the 200-yard relay team. Other Friar qualifiers who scored in J. Kennedy, J. Kerwin, R. Hohman, T. Frainey, R. Wehman, G. Lane, B. Hancock, J. Impens and J. Marshall.

Both Teams Win Championships

Just to show that their relay teams could swim in a straight line, Fenwick reappeared at the Loyola pool a week later for the first annual Chicago Area Private High School Relay meet. They literally ran off with the show, placing one and usually two teams in every event, and winning every time. The Friar total (Junior and Senior) was 102 points; the runner-up, De Paul, had less than 60.

The Junior swimming team had as successful a season as the Seniors. A team which in October had very few established members, developed rapidly into a squad with such depth and ability that, in the Catholic League Junior meet, they placed no fewer than three swimmers in every event.

The Junior swimmers shared with their Senior counterparts the pleasure of dunking Steinmetz (2) Loyola (2), Taft and Austin. Swimmers who participated in these victories and later qualified in the Junior Championship meet were Darley, Lane, McEnroe, Hartmann, Weiland, Gies, Green, Cooke, Beeman, Morrissey, Barrett, Marshall, Sullivan, O'Brien, Cantu, and others.

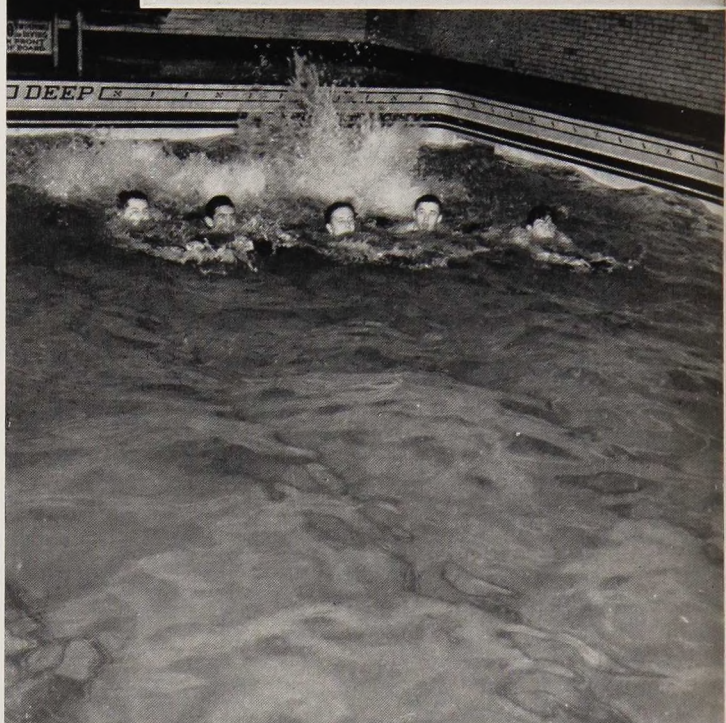

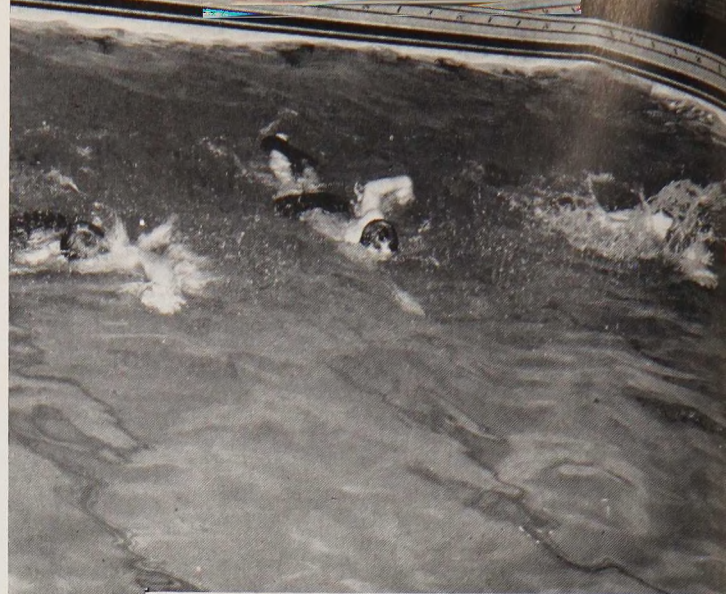

In the Junior Championship meet, only two Fenwick swimmers won individual crowns. Dick Beeman upset teammate Jerry Morrissey to win the backstroke event, and Jack Sullivan was victorious in the diving. But the success of the relays, and the many places piled up by Fenwick, led to an overwhelming victory, in which 64 points were scored. This total bettered by 6 points the previous scoring record set by the present Seniors two years ago.

It isn't all honor and glory.

Junior prospects for next year are good. The Senior team will suffer the loss of 11 men by graduation; and its remaining letter men including: Joe Happ, Dick Wehman and Dick Hohman, will need the strength they will receive from the Sophomore class. Whoever swims, it is a cinch that Dan O'Brien will have another outstanding team next year.

TRACK TEAM

WINS IN CHICAGO RELAYS

On March 19, a Friar relay team composed of Jack Regan, George Remus, Bill Carmody, and Jack Kelly closed Fenwick's first indoor track season with a sparkling victory in the Catholic League Division of the Daily News Relays. Running before 16,500 people at the Chicago Stadium the team won the  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile relay in the fast time of 2:29:3.

The previous week a relay team consisting of Jack Regan, Terry Ahearn, Bill Carmody, and Jack Kelly swept to victory in the Catholic League 880 yard relay at the Illinois Tech Relay Carnival. The preceding night the same team placed third in the A. A. U. track meet.

When the outdoor season arrived the team participated in the Loyola relays and the Catholic League Track Meet. Members of the team are Jack Kelly, 440 and 220 man; Jack Regan, Bill Carmody, and George Remus, dashmen; George O'Brien, Terry Ahearn, and Fred Gale, half-milers; Jack Hosty, miler; and Frank Bresnan, Jim Murray, and Ed Fitzmaurice. This well balanced squad is undoubtedly one of the best in the history of Fenwick.

GOLF

From last year's golf team returned three members, Gleason, Frainey, and Murphy. Two new members were added by Father Conley, coach of the team, from the ranks of those who played in the intramural tournament.

John Gleason was appointed captain and as such led the Friars into a very successful season.

The Fenwick Intramural Golf Tournament was held shortly after Easter and was open to the entire student body. It was held at Midwest Golf Course and golf ball medals were given to the winners in each class. A trophy was given to the man with low total for the eighteen hole round.

TENNIS

Coach Lawless announced the appointment of Jimmy Smith '49 as captain of this year's tennis squad. Jim was the obvious choice, being on the tennis team for four years, and an outstanding performer each year. The other members of the team were Jack Impens '49, Ed Fiedler '50, Vince Baldasarri '50, and Ed Vertuno '50. All these men are repeaters from last year.

The intramural tennis tournament was held in the early spring, and these men were chosen from the players. Before the season opened, they had been practicing at the armory and in this way prepared for the successful season which they enjoyed.

ACTIVITIES

As they do in almost every school, extra-curricular activities play a major part in the lives of the students. A school is primarily an institution of learning, but without a liking for the school itself there would be no incentive to learn. The various clubs, teams and activities sponsored by the school supply this incentive.

At Fenwick there has always been a program of activities aimed at this goal. Within the limits of the school there are clubs and teams to fit the personality of every boy. Throughout the year, these clubs function constantly for the pleasure and education of the student. These clubs hold dances, contests and trips at different times during the school months which are open to the members and, often times, to the entire school. The next pages will tell you about each of them.

BLACKFRIARS

Early in the school year, the Reverend T. A. Dymek, O.P., announced the appointment of James Gearen '49 as editor-in-chief of Blackfriars. A staff was then chosen from those seniors who volunteered, and work began almost immediately on this yearbook.

The first deadline was December 17, the second was March 1, and the third was April 15. Work had to be done fast and furiously in order to meet these dates.

On December 17, the entire first section of sixty pages was to be submitted to Campus Service. These pages consisted mainly of the faculty and student pictures. Each student's had to be taken individually, identified, arranged as to pages, and the names had to be ready for the printer. The bulk of this work fell on the shoulders of Tom Sorquist, John Jenks, and Harry Ross. The faculty section was the work of Denvir Steinbach.

The next section consisted of the pages from 61 to 112. In this section was the athletics, ably handled by Sports Editor Edward Sullivan. The remainder of the pages were on the various school activities and were done by different individuals on the staff.

The remaining twenty-four pages had the rest of the clubs and teams, and the section on the adult activities. These pages were turned in on April 15, and Blackfriars was completed.

THE WICK . . .

Comparatively raw at the start, the 1948 Wick staff rapidly improved. Editor-in-Chief Joe Kerwin, '49, introduced several new features, including "Faculty Hi-Lites," biographical sketches of Fenwick professors; and humorous items from the Wick of previous years, entitled "It Happened at Fenwick."

To commemorate the visit to Fenwick by the Most Reverend Emmanuel Suarez, O.P., Master General of the Dominican Order, in February, 1948, a special four-page edition was issued. This "extra" was the work of only three staff members. The following issue was published within six days.

Among other notable accomplishments were the coverage of the priory fire and a two-

In September the Reverend J. A. Henry, O.P., was succeeded as Wick Adviser by the Reverend M. J. Dempsey, O.P. However no staff changes were made.

This spring the annual Wick banquet was held, at which Father Dempsey awarded Wick pins to the more active journalists.

With the ascent of the Junior Wick staff in January, the custom of appointing page editors was re-instituted, and a few changes in make-up were introduced, particularly on the feature page.

The Servers' Club is doubtlessly the most active of all Fenwick's extra-curricular activities. It is not only active, but it is also beneficial from the standpoint that it helps both the students and the servers, themselves, in their spiritual development. Through it the members not only obtain the spiritual benefits but also acquire a more thorough knowledge and appreciation of the ceremonies of their religion. At present, there are about twenty members in the Servers' Club.

With Father James W. Regan as moderator, the members not only serve Mass and Benediction at Fenwick, but they also frequently accompany the Dominican Fathers on special, outside ceremonies. In addition to serving, the Club is charged with the duty of caring for the Chapel. This is taken care of by the sacristans, George Reynolds and Richard Shaw, who see that the Chapel is kept in order and that the vestments and sacred vessels are provided for all the Masses and Benediction.

CHEERLEADERS

Friar football fans found much to cheer about in 1948, thus easing the task of the new group of cheerleaders. Under the supervision of the Reverend E. M. McGowan, O.P., the squad, consisting of seniors Don Carbone and George Reynolds, juniors Larry Harast and Bob Mulcahy, and sophomores Tom Fitzgerald and Bob Elliott — improved steadily, although only Harast had been a regular the year before.

Letter winners Harast, Carbone and Mulcahy also led cheers at Friar basketball games.

However, it is generally conceded that the cheerleaders' star performer was their duck mascot, Fendrake II, owned and operated by Jerry Marth '50. To carry on next year for Fendrake, who has since retired to a tranquil rural life, the squad is hoping for a Fendrake III.

FENWICK BAND

The year 1949 saw the Fenwick Band complete its 19th successful year, thus making this organization one of the oldest extra-curricular activities. As in the past years, the band had a full schedule, playing at home football games, student pep rallies, the St. Thomas Symposium and at many other school affairs throughout the year. The acme of the season came on March 16, when the annual Band Concert was held before a large crowd in the school gym. Another concert was also presented for the Mothers' Club on May 6.

In January the Rev. J. A. Simones, O.P., completed his twelfth year as moderator of the Band. During this time the organization has received many honors, including superior ratings in the Class A division of the Catholic Music Association's Annual Contests. The Fenwick unit was also included in the "All-City" bands of 1947 and 1948. Naturally, much of the credit for these honors belongs to Mr. John Sovinec, who has been associated with the Band as conductor since 1939. Father Simones was again aided in his duties by the Rev. L. V. Nadeau, O.P., who has served as assistant moderator for the past two years.

The membership in the Band this year totaled 36, with 7 seniors, 10 juniors, 9 sophomores, and 10 freshmen participating. For the first time in three years no officers were elected. As senior members the following received their major letters this year: N. Bovy, R. Fitzgerald, E. Joyce, D. McCurry, P. Nash, D. Smith, and A. Wieland, all '49.

THE DEBATING TEAM

Under the able leadership of Rev. G. G. Conway, O.P., the Debating Club has had another successful season. The topic for discussion this year was, Resolved: That the United Nations should now be revised into a Federal World Government. Because of the troubled times this topic was unusually interesting.

After participating in several practice debates, the debaters were entered in the Loyola and Mundelein Tournaments and the Catholic League Forum. In addition to this, the Friar debaters traveled to Milwaukee to take part in the Wisconsin Catholic League Tournament held at Marquette University High School.

Opening the season successfully, the senior debaters, Jack Spatafora, Gene McEnery, Loyola Fitzmaurice, Jack Kelly and Bill Hank captured the trophy in the Loyola Invitational Tournament. Gene McEnery was awarded a medal for the best debating of the afternoon.

The junior debaters, Bouley, Kunzmann, Pikell and Scott, participated in several tournaments. Although inexperienced, they ran up a creditable record.

THE RADIO CLUB

Throughout the 1948-49 season, the Fenwick Radio Club continued its rapid growth. Under the direction of the Reverend E. M. Robinson, O. P., a program of instruction was given to the members in order to familiarize the boys with the make-up of the radio and with the Morse Code. The boys put this knowledge to practical use in the building of their own sets and in using the radio transmitter.

The radio transmitter, one of the strongest sets used by amateurs, is equipped with a rotary antenna on the roof of the gym. This antenna was built by Father Robinson with the aid of the members of the club and can be operated by remote control from the transmitting room in the basement of the priory. The radio itself is capable of reaching all parts of the world.

The prime object of the boys is to gain a government license in order to become radio operators themselves. Their practice in code and their working knowledge of the radio is all aimed at this goal.

THE CAMERA CLUB

Throughout 1948-49, the Fenwick Camera Club continued in the plan of improvements which was begun in 1947. An extensive project of redecorating the darkroom was completed early in the second semester. Some of the notable improvements in the darkroom are new lockers, available to those members who wish to keep their own developing equipment at school, a unique built-in safelight system, and new trays, tanks, and other equipment for processing films and prints.

Under the able guidance of the moderator, Rev. L. V. Nadeau, O.P., the Camera Club schedule included numerous activities, such as, field trips, contests, exhibitions, and illustrated lectures. The high spot of the first semester was a field trip to Starved Rock, Illinois, on November 11. About thirty members spent the day at this picturesque park hunting unusual photographic subjects and participating in a field contest. The annual major salon, which is open to the entire Fenwick student body, was held in March. Following the salon, the winning prints were on exhibition in the school library. The illustrated lectures, which were presented at the weekly meetings, included talks on elementary and advanced developing and on the construction and operation of some of the more popular makes of cameras.

The year's membership numbered forty, with Thomas McNamara '49, president; Roger Keith '50, vice-president; and William Dwiggins '50, secretary, governing the club in the first semester. At the second election, held in January, the following officers were elected: Roger Keith '50, president; Robert Steenhausen, '51, vice-president; and William Dwiggins '50, secretary and salon chairman.

STAMP CLUB

In September, the Fenwick Stamp Club elected for its first semester officers: G. Kunzmann '50, president; J. Schiltz '49, vice-president; and W. Santoro '49, secretary-treasurer. All during the first semester, the club planned a salon contest, held on December 7. Kunzmann's display was chosen the most unusual, and Schiltz won second prize. Third place was awarded to Fred Thompson. The regular activities of the club included the weekly talks, and several donations made it possible for the members to buy additional supplies.

The second semester officers were: G. Kunzmann, president; W. Givens '50, vice-president; W. Hank '50, secretary; and F. Thompson '51, treasurer. Early in the semester an outing was proposed by Kunzmann. The plans were carried out in May, when a tour, movie, and luncheon were given to all the regular members.

THE FRENCH CLUB

Every Friday afternoon, the martial strains of the "Marseillaise" waft their way through the halls of Fenwick High School frequently followed by the lilting (and sometimes off-key) melodies of "Frere Jaques" and "Marrian' s'en va-t-au moulin." But what gives? Has W9ANF started broadcasting foreign programs? Has a secret society of "furriners" been formed within these hallowed walls? No, it's merely Le Cercle Francais holding its weekly meeting.

Le Cercle Francais (or the French Club) was resurrected this year by Father John C. Puisis, C.S.V., and it seems to be becoming one of Fenwick's regular extra-curricular organizations again.

The whole purpose of the Club is to acquaint the members with a more thorough knowledge of the customs, language, and civilization of France in an informal manner. This purpose is achieved by French newspapers, plays, skits, and all sorts of things. With suitable accompaniment provided by Jim Svihla and his "stomach Steinway" and room 31's excuse for a piano, all the members become familiar with the traditional, French tunes. The Club regularly receives "L'Action Catholique," the official Catholic newspaper of Quebec. Many successful plays ("Petites Comedies") have been put on under the direction of Father Puisis.

At present, the Club includes about twenty-five members, most of whom are seniors. The officers were George Doucette, president; Loyola Fitzmaurice, treasurer; and Gerry Gaumond, secretary.

A third successful year has been chalked up by one of Fenwick's newest extra-curricular organizations, the Rifle Club. The group is under the direction and instruction of Father James A. Quinn, O.P., the founder and moderator. The Club is comprised of an active membership of twenty fellows. The Rifle Club, itself, has a membership in the National Rifle Association and has placed high in the various nationwide matches.

The past year's officers were Jim Green, '49, president; Charles Welter, '50, vice-president; George Doucette, '49, executive officer; Jerry DeClercq, '49, secretary; and John Culkeen, '50, Treasurer.

Meetings are held every week, and practice takes place at the rifle range of the Austin Town Hall where the members have the opportunity to become adept at shooting from the various positions. In addition to this, the team has taken an active part in the William Randolph Hearst Match, the Monthly Postal Matches, and in many other meets that may arise. In all these activities, the team's average has been high, and awards have been earned by several of the members.

THE SEA SCOUTS

Every Thursday night the crew of the S.S. Santa Domingo, the Fenwick ship, comes aboard and another meeting of the SEA SCOUTS is called to order. Under the leadership of the Rev. Martin Scannell, O.P., chaplain and moderator, the Fenwick ship has become one of the most interesting extra-curricular activities of the school.

At present the Fenwick unit consists of Joe Pikell, Joe Fluks, Lowell Miller, James Madell, Joe Cichon, and Vince Caranella. Their current project is constructing model sailing ships.

In the future if the unit becomes active enough, Fr. Scannell hopes to obtain a surplus ship from the navy. Several camping trips have been planned for the coming summer.

AMATEUR NIGHT

Once again, on the night of December 7, 1948, 1400 students, parents and friends crowded into Fenwick's gym to view the 14th annual Amateur Night.

The undertaking was under the moderation of Father John D. Malone, who originated the yearly "ham" presentation, 14 years ago, and the program consisted of nearly 25 acts.

In charge of the program, was the acting chairman, Gerald Miller, who was assisted by Father Malone's Junior Religion Class.

Prizes were awarded by the Very Reverend Francis L. VanderHeyden, O.P.; the Reverend Reginald Hughes, O.P.; and Mr. William Wendt, who acted as judges. First prize was divided between Bob Conforti, '50; and Fred Thompson, '51; two able pianists. Mr. Conforti also rendered a vocal solo. Accepting second prize was Ken Geiger, '49, who tickled funnybones with his humorous impersonations of famous persons. "Little Boy Blue" Purcell, '49, who sang his way into the hearts of the girls in the audience; the Maywood City Four, a half size Barber Shop Quartette; and Gene Fanning, '49, Fenwick's John Charles Thomas; were all winners of the third prize.

All previous records were broken by this greatest attendance ever recorded and a profit of $703.34 was sent to the Dominican Missions in Boyce, Louisiana.

THE BLACKFRIARS GUILD

Taking last year's hit production of "Show Business" in stride, the Blackfriars Dramatic Guild finished their fifth season with a smash musical play entitled "Fight Time". The play was written by Leo Brady, author of "Brother Orchid", the presentation of two years ago.

"Fight Time", under the direction of the Rev. J. A. Henry, O.P., with the assistance of Reverend D. W. Brady, O.P., and Reverend J. L. Lyons, O.P., turned in a record attendance during its run of May 19, 20, and 21. The setting of the play was in a gymnasium with a prize-fight as the highlight.

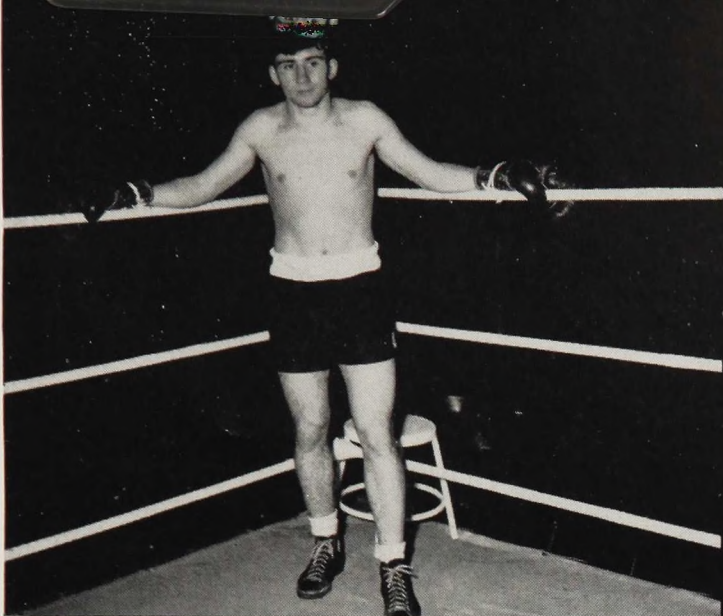

This year's Blackfriars Guild is headed by an all-senior group and is under the moderation of Father Henry. The officers are Bill Foley, president; Ken Geiger, vice-president; Ray Korzen, secretary; and Howie Scaman, treasurer.

At their annual entertainment of the Mothers' Club this winter, the thespians presented a three scene play, ironically entitled, "A Problem in Education". Humorously portrayed were the "ups and downs" of the typical high school student. The cast consisted of Seniors, Ed Sullivan, Dan McDonald, Howie Scaman, Ken Geiger, Ray Korzen and Sam Cianelli.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each year several members of the Senior Class are named to the National Honor Society. Although the number elected by the faculty is usually eight or ten, this year there were eighteen graduates honored.

One of the most coveted of graduating honors is to be named to this society. The boys are chosen from the scholastically highest members of the class, but are not appointed merely on this basis. Extra-curricular work is a large factor in the selection, as are personal neatness and classroom attitude.

The Seniors pictured above are those who were elected to the National Honor Society. This group has set a record both scholastically and in membership that will undoubtedly stand for many years at Fenwick.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

The Religion Department of Fenwick, under the leadership of the Reverend Thomas C. Donlan, O.P., S.T.D., again provided for a full calendar of events, the most important of which was the annual Retreat for the students. This year the exercises were conducted by Father Anselm M. Vitie, O.P., of Saint Pius Priory, Chicago. It is difficult, if not impossible, to gauge the results of spiritual endeavors, but the edifying attendance of the students at the sacraments, and the spirit of recollection they manifested indicates that the days of retreat were well spent with great spiritual profit.

Another highlight was vocation week. Fenwick strives to equip all her students with a maximum of information and motivation to help them make a prudent choice of a state in life. One of the means to this end is vocation week, during which is presented a series of talks on various aspects of the priestly and religious vocations. This year there were three talks: "Men in Medicine—with Christ," by an Alexian

Brother; "America—Seventy Million Godless," by a Paulist Father; and "Dominicans—Twentieth Century Apostles," by the Provincial Director of Vocations of the Dominicans. A motion picture, "Captains in His Army," was shown through the courtesy of the Serra International.

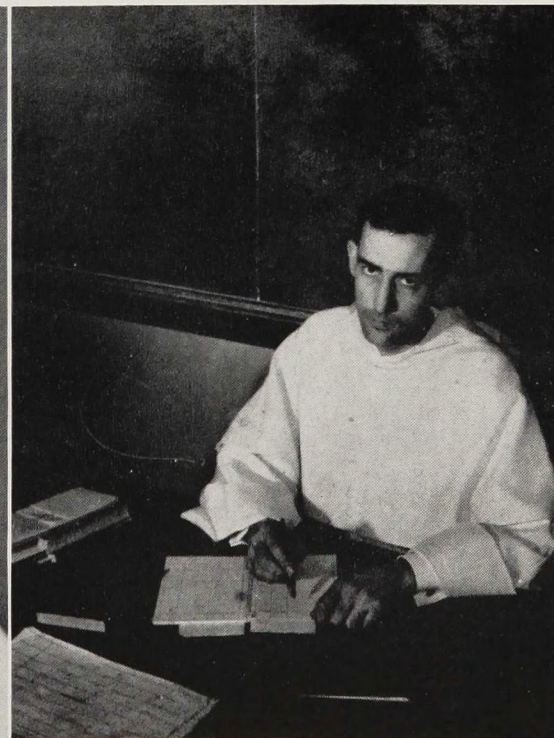

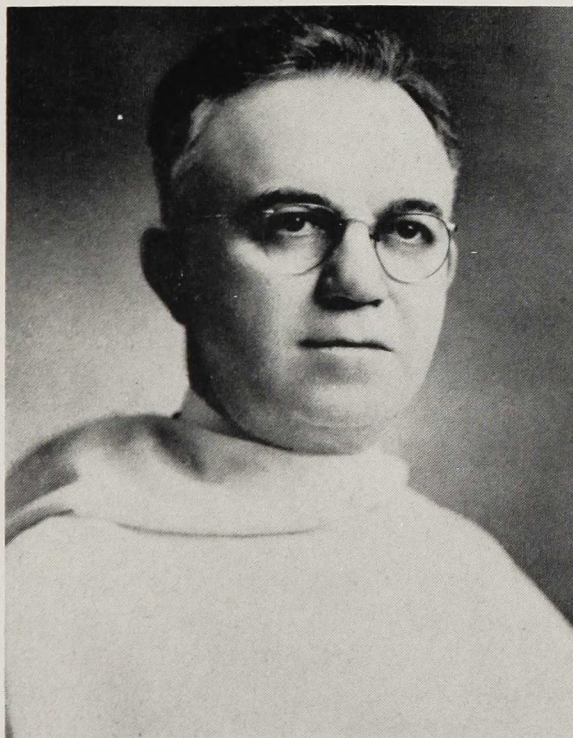

A fitting honor to Saint Thomas Aquinas was given at the thirteenth annual Symposium. The net results of the ceremony were a renewal of interest in the Angelic Patron of Schools and Students, and the display of much excellent talent among the high school students of Chicagoland.

The enrollment of the students in the Confraternity of Saint Thomas again reached the one-hundred per cent mark this year.

The cornerstone for the new Dominican Priory was laid at a pompous ceremony on All Saints' Day. The priory, now near completion, will provide a larger and more ample chapel for the student body, and a fitting atmosphere for the religious services of the coming years.

SCHOOL DANCES

Every year Fenwick sponsors a number of dances. These dances are the high spots of the students' social life here at Fenwick.

During the school year the Saint Thomas Confraternity stages two Confratillions, one held in the fall and one in the spring. This year the fall Confratillion netted $150 for the Dominican Home Missions.

On November 29, the Junior Prom was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Knickerbocker Hotel. Jimmy Richards' orchestra supplied the music. Under the leadership of Bill Hank and Bob Perry the affair was termed "a huge social success" by Father M. A. Kavanagh, O.P., class moderator.

In the early part of 1949 the Junior Class sponsored a series of Saturday Night Dances. The idea behind the plan was to promote friendship between Fenwick boys and Trinity girls. In this way it was hoped that Catholic young people would meet each other and associate with people of their own faith.

This year the Senior Prom will be held at the Medinah Country Club on May 31. Larry Specht is the chairman of the dance. Dan Belloc's band will provide the music.

PARENTS' ACTIVITIES

Behind the school, the students, and the faculty in all their plans are the parents of the students and the alumni. These two groups aid the school financially and by their constant backing.

During the year, the Fathers' Club is a most active organization of the school. They sponsor the Football Banquet, Parents' Entertainment Night, Father and Son Mass and Communion, and entertainment for the men and boys at their monthly meetings.

On the first Friday of every month, the Mothers' Club meets. Throughout the year, the mothers hold parties for the parents and their friends and in doing so contribute greatly to the funds of the school.

Because of a love for Fenwick that began during their school days, the alumni can't seem to stay away from the school. Under the moderation of the Very Reverend V. S. Feltrop, they meet regularly and hold dances during the year for the benefit of the school.

The ensuing pages go into more detail concerning the activities of the parents, and of the alumni. Let their examples of cooperation and unselfishness be a model to you in your days at Fenwick and in the future.

MOTHERS' CLUB

During the past year, which was their eighteenth, the various activities of the Fenwick Mothers' Club proved not only to be socially successful, but also, of financial assistance to the school.

On Friday evening, September 24, as a unique opening event, the Mothers' Club sponsored a benefit girls' soft ball game at Parichy Memorial Stadium between the Chicago Bluebirds and the Champion Parichy Bloomer Girls. On the following Sunday the annual Mothers' Day football game was held. These functions were followed through the year by the annual Fall, Mardi Gras, and Spring card parties. At the social hour following the Nazareth Conferences, the members served as hostesses. On March 29, they joined with the Trinity High School Mothers' Club to hold a Day of Recollection at the latter's school auditorium.

One of the organization's many gifts to the school in the past year was a set of black-out draw curtains for the gymnasium windows. Such gifts are purchased with the funds derived from their numerous affairs.

Heading this extensive program for the 1948-1949 season were the officers, the Reverend Anselm M. Townsend, O.P., honorary president; Mrs. William D. Ambrose, president; Mrs. Edward J. Riley, vice-president; Mrs. Eugene T. McEnery, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold F. Enright, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William C. Foreman, treasurer; Mrs. James J. Shanahan, financial secretary; plus the board of directors and their committees.

FATHERS' CLUB

With the termination of the 1948-1949 school year, the Fenwick Fathers' Club, under its moderator the Reverend James A. Quinn, O.P., closed their books on one of the most successful years they have had since the Club's founding seventeen years ago. As in the past, their extensive and entertaining program was financed with the funds obtained from the collection of the dues.

As it has been ever since its adoption into the Fathers' Club program, the "Family Entertainment Night" ranked as the top hit of the year's activities. Right behind it, however, in the popularity poll was the annual Football Banquet at the Morrison Hotel which this year honored our Catholic League Champions. At the banquet, Clem Lane presided as toastmaster with Wally Weber topping the list of notable speakers. During the year, many of the other meetings proved to be very interesting and entertaining. Following the annual Fathers' Day football game on October 24, a special party was held at the Oak Park Arms Hotel for the Club's members and their wives. On October 17, and January 30, the Fathers and Sons Communion-breakfasts were held as the Club's number one religious exercise; the support of which was most gratifying. As a benefit to the student body the Vocational Talk Series was continued with many well-informed speakers participating.

To organize and carry out this long list of Fathers' Club activities was the duty of the officers: Mr. Victor H. Gies, president; Messrs. William S. Toohey and Harry O. Valleau, senior and junior vice-presidents respectively; Messrs. Nicholas S. Mavigliano and Thomas J. Frainey, freshman vice-presidents; Mr. Michael A. Georgen, financial secretary; Mr. John H. Quinn, corresponding secretary; Mr. Burton R. Hohman, treasurer; Mr. Paul A. Nelson, alumni secretary, and the many hard-working members.

BUILDING FUND

The closing of the school year heralds the announcement from Father Van Rooy that the Fenwick Building Drive will be concluded when the final returns from the chance books now out come in.

Under the chairmanship of Mr. Hugh E. Mulligan, the drive has succeeded in raising $400,000 for the construction of a new addition to Fenwick High School.

The final architectural plans for the building have been drawn up and work on the addition is to begin next fall, when the faculty moves from the present priory to the recently constructed priory.

The Building Drive was started in the summer of 1945, as a means of alleviating the critical shortage of Catholic High School accommodations in the Chicago area. The Very Reverend Peter O'Brien, O.P., Provincial of the Province of Saint Albert, appointed the Reverend W. D. Van Rooy to direct the drive and Mr. Hugh E. Mulligan consented to act as general chairman.

According to present plans, the addition will consist of class rooms on the third floor, a two story auditorium, and a combination cafeteria and study hall in the basement.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

This year men from seven different organizations came to Fenwick to speak concerning their respective businesses and vocations. Each speaker gave an accurate and precise picture of what his business was like. Through the efforts of Mr. M. A. Georgen, who is in charge of the Vocational Guidance Program, the lectures have proved very advantageous this year, as they have in the past two years. These talks help solve the problems of the many students who are undecided about their futures.

The program was begun this year by Mr. Edward D. Corboy of the Chicago Tribune, who spoke on the subject of advertising. Next, a splendid talk was given about politics by the former Mayor of Chicago, Edward J. Kelly. Mr. Daniel Herr, vice-president and manager of the Thomas More Bookshop, told of the advantages and disadvantages of entering the publishing field.

The first talk of the new year was given by two men of the Scientific Crime Detection Laboratory of Chicago. Mr. Joseph D. Nicol, ballistics expert and laboratory supervisor; and Mr. Daniel T. Dragel, evidence evaluator, chemist, and legal advisor to the director, gave some very convincing proof to the slogan that "Crime does not pay."

The sixth lecture of the school year was given by Mr. John V. Sandburg, advertising and sales promotion manager of the Kraft Foods Company of Chicago. Mr. Sandburg gave a general talk on the subject of sales. The final talk on the year's agenda was given by Mr. E. G. LeClair, who is the assistant chief engineer of the Commonwealth Edison Company.

Thus ended another successful year of vocational talks by outstanding businessmen.

These talks of the past three years have practically become a necessary part of the school's program, because they are so beneficial with regard to the immediate future of Fenwick's students. They have given the student body a clear picture of life in the business field of today's confused world.

NAZARETH CONFERENCE

The Nazareth Conferences, inaugurated at Fenwick three years ago under the sponsorship of the Chancellory Office of the Archdiocese of Chicago, have completed another successful year. Under the moderation of Reverend Thomas C. Donlan, O.P., the Nazareth Conferences strive to foster the social approach to Catholic education. Active participation of the parents is required. With parental cooperation, intelligent guidance is needed, and that note of guidance is supplied by the Nazareth Conferences.

At the Conferences two talks are given, one by some qualified layman who acquaints the parents with some aspects of present-day conditions as they affect youth, and another by a priest who outlines the true Christian evaluation of the problem presented by the layman. The talk by the priest contains both the teachings of the Church and practical suggestions about applying these teachings in the home. A discussion period follows the talks, and it is at this time that parents are given the chance to express and exchange their ideas on the topic.

Two of the topics discussed were "Steady Dating" and "The College Question," each a subject of vital interest to the parents of high school students. The evening Conferences are brought to a close by benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, and refreshments which are served in the back of the gymnasium.

PARENTS' NIGHT

On October 28, 1948, Fenwick's front doors were once again open to the parents of all students.

A record number of parents attended the Annual Parents' Night to discuss the problems of their sons with his teachers.

The thirty-five professors were kept busy for more than three hours, receiving some nine hundred parents.

Only one of the faculty, the Reverend M. A. Scannell, O.P., was not present, due to circumstances beyond his control.

A little touch of humor was added to the evening when Father Dymek's name appeared on the program as Father Symek, confusing many of the parents.

But, however, Fenwick's Annual Parents' Night was a big success.

THE ALUMNI

"Fenwick's largest active organization." Such is the title applied to the ever-growing group of graduates—the Fenwick Alumni Association. Its purpose is to reunite the graduates with Fenwick and their former classmates and to provide necessary encouragement for present Fenwick students. This association now numbers approximately eighteen hundred men.

The Very Reverend Victor S. Feltrop, moderator, is assisted in his duties by Bernie Masterson '35, president; Jack McCauley '34, vice-president; Dennis Crowley '42, secretary; and Bob Cooney '40, treasurer.

The Alumni calendar is a full one. The year begins with the annual golf tournament in September, which is followed by the Spring Dance and Alumni Dance in June. Father Feltrop has recently announced a retreat which will be held some time in the summer. The high point of the year is their basketball game with the Varsity, the "Fenwick Jug" being the traveling trophy. The "Jug" was won this year by the Varsity 49 to 33.

Regular monthly meetings are held in the cafeteria. It is in our Alumni Association that the spirit of Fenwick lives on.

CANDIDS AROUND THE SCHOOL

The School Song

Hail, dear old Fenwick High,
All hail to Thee.
Our Alma Mater we pledge our loyalty;
For Thee we'll ever strive
Victory to gain.
The White, the Black, brave sons will never lack
Her glory to retain.
Then fight with a might reflecting the courage of Fenwick men;
What though we fall Fenwick will rise up and fight again.
Thy Name and Honor bright we will defend
To God, to Country, and to Alma Mater
Faithful to life's end.

Fenwick Victory March

March, Fenwick, march down the field;

March, Friars, march Men of Steel.

We conquer our foes and wield

A fearless strength that reveals

Our loyal Men never yield.

Fight, Fenwick, fight to the end;

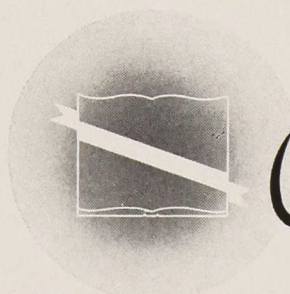

Fight, Friars, fight till we win.

Fight for our colors, Black and White,

And for Fenwick and victory.
