forward

Like a good market researcher deciding which commercials should go with a specific television program, I believe that there is a demographic for people who read forwards. Knowing that most people will just skip over this, I've decided that I have something to say to the 'forward-readers' in this, the last yearbook to be produced under my influence.

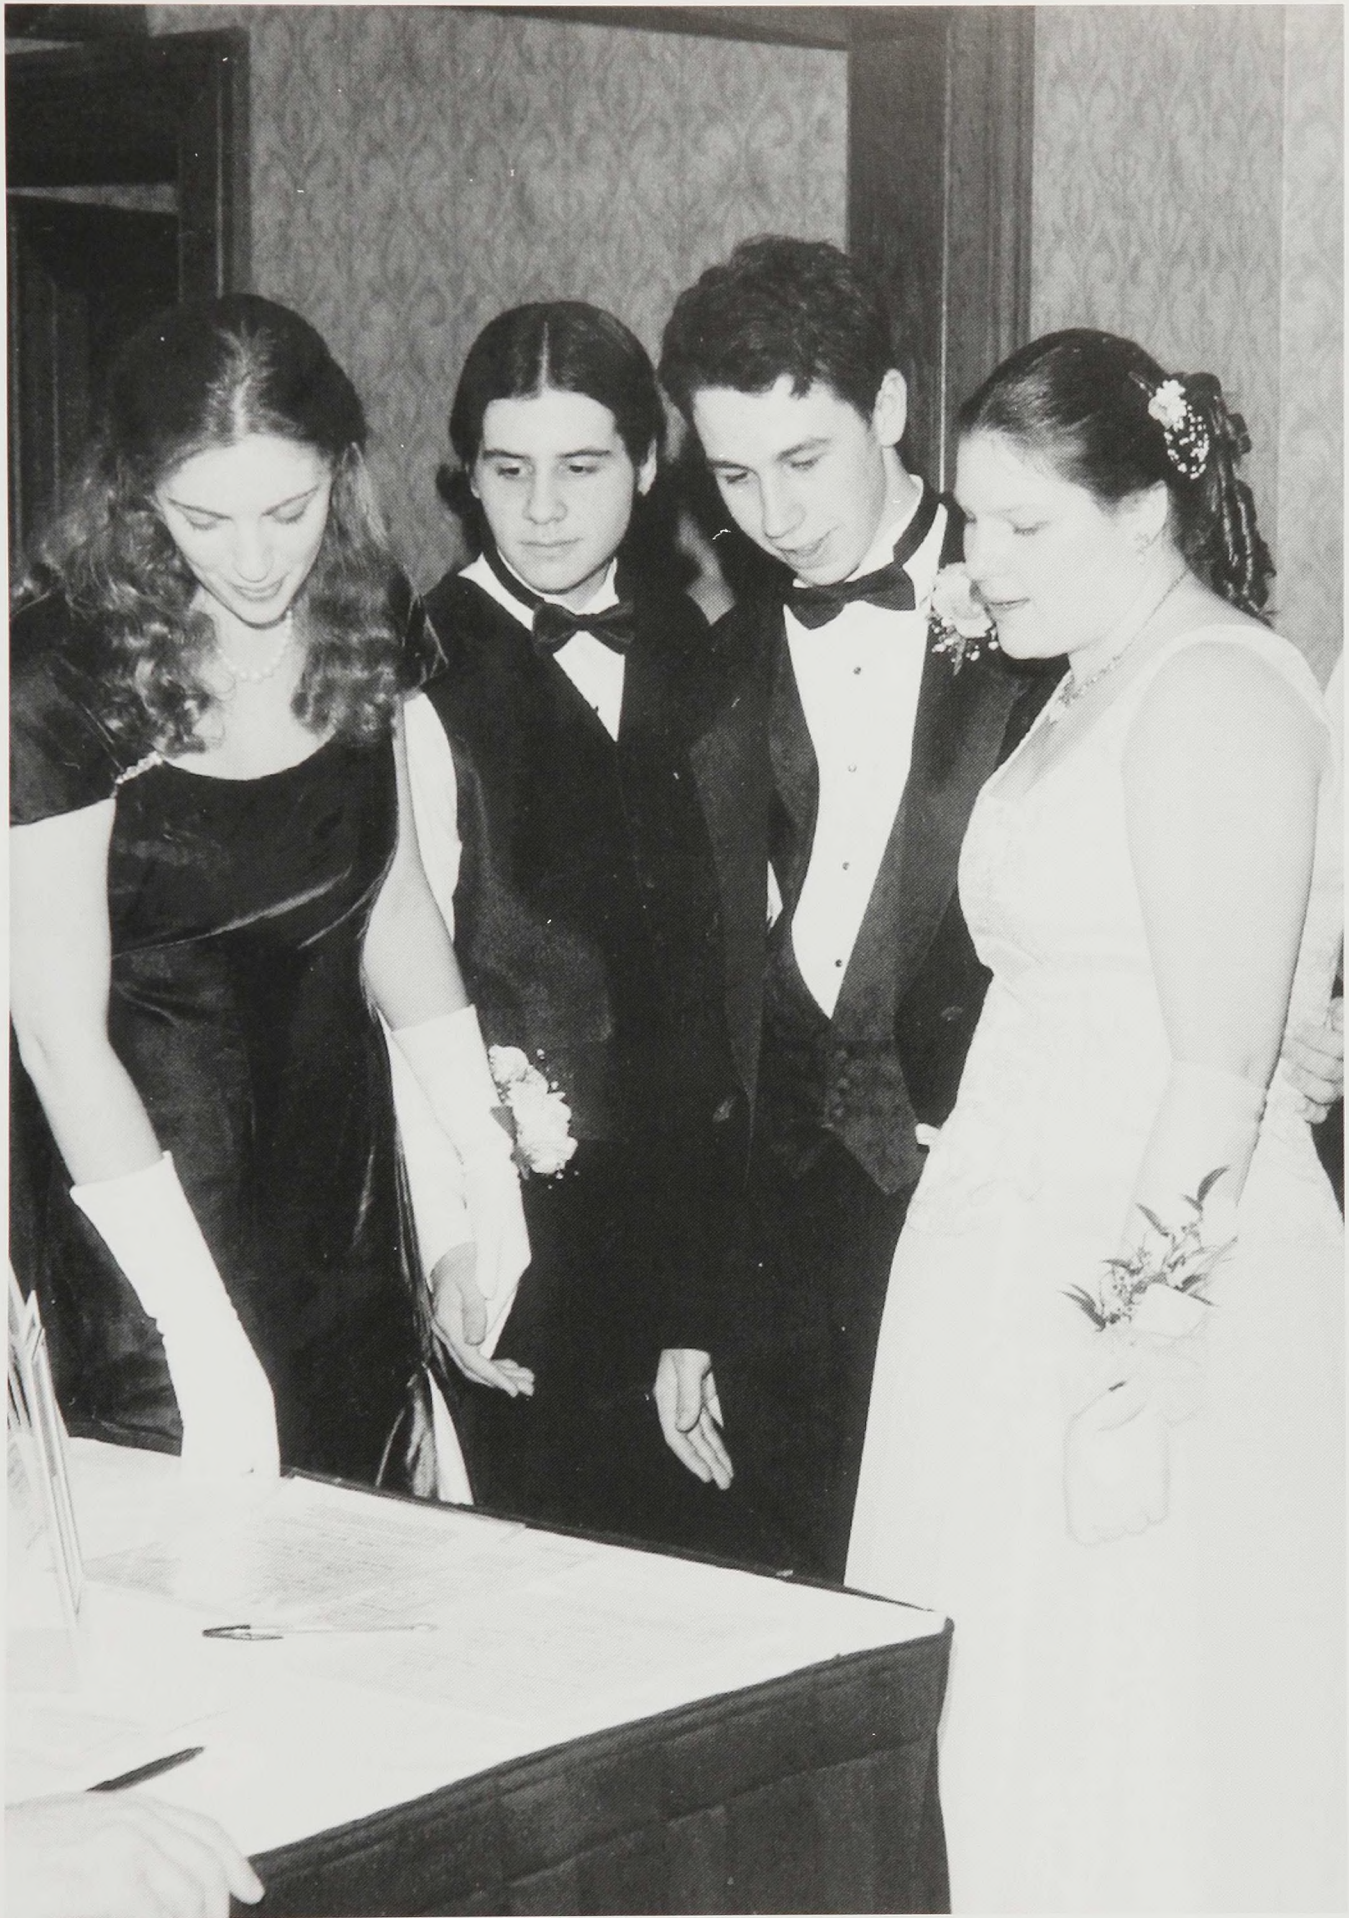

Five years is sufficient. In perceived time, it doesn't seem to have been all that long, but if I choose, I can make it sound significant (half of a decade). Either way, whether I want to make it look like I've been here for a long or a short time, five years has been sufficient to leave a mark on a percentage of Fenwick's historical record.

That last phrase has been an epiphany for me. If the yearbook is a genuine historical record, then a yearbook moderator should be a genuine historian. This was the solution to my dilemma. I've viewed myself in many capacities, but never as an historian. If I had, I might have been more conscious of you twenty-first century readers of these volumes and the content might have been more apt. As it stands, however, the content has been dictated by present necessity and I use this space here to apologize to the more astute readers.

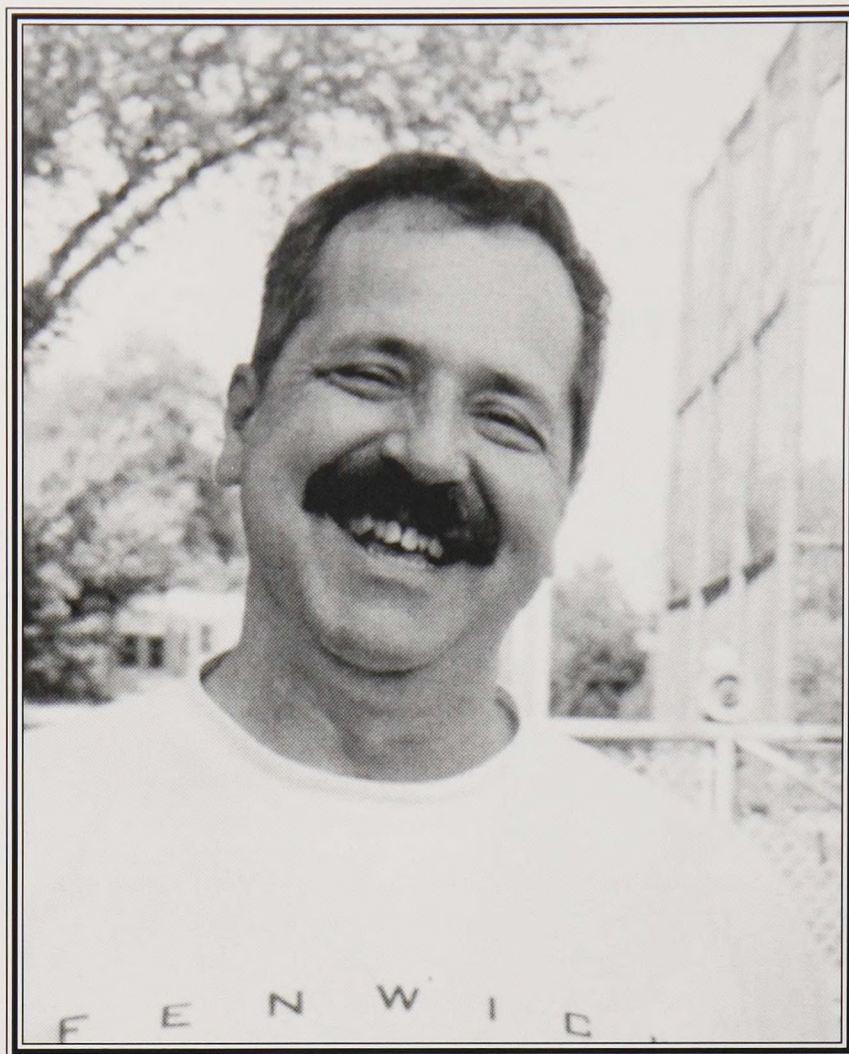

Regardless of my influence, the high points of this book have always been due to the work of people who do understand the importance of a yearbook. Chief among these people would of course be my savior, Maureen Oloffson (Herf-Jones Sales Rep). In almost an equal capacity would be the group of photographers who provided me with such excellent pictures: Mary Pat Ryan, Jose Garcia Sr., Dr. David West, and of course Marshall Photographers (Greg, Lou, and Joe). Lastly, I should also thank the suggestions of the yearbook critic, Mr. David Holm.

Its been an interesting five years. I'm glad to move on.

Reverend Daniel Davis, O.P.
Fenwick President
(1994 - 1998)

LOVE

However you choose to remember this president, I can't say that I've met anyone who hasn't directly or indirectly mentioned that Fr. Davis made an effort to represent the Christian value of love. Either hearing from the many students who took him up on his offer to just stop by his office and chat or listening to faculty, staff and administrators who simply mentioned a comfort with his leadership, I don't think I'm being trite by writing that Fenwick High School has been affected by Fr. Davis in a permanent and positive way. He shall always be remembered and shall always be welcomed back.

Fenwick's Future Takes Shape in '98

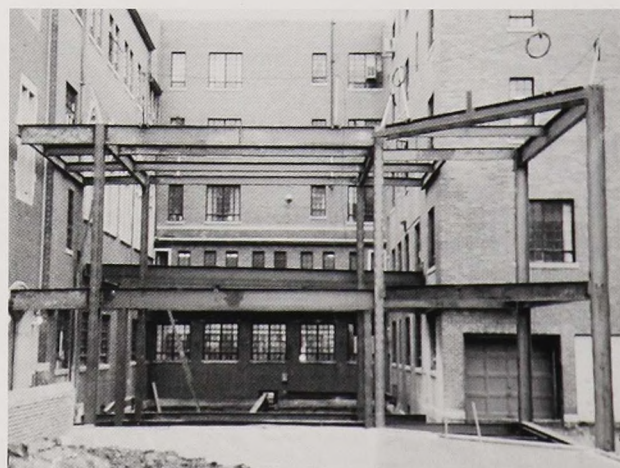

The corner of Scoville Avenue and Washington Boulevard likely never saw a more busy year than 1998. Fenwick undertook its first expansion in nearly 50 years at this intersection, a project that busied the place throughout the 1997-1998 school year.

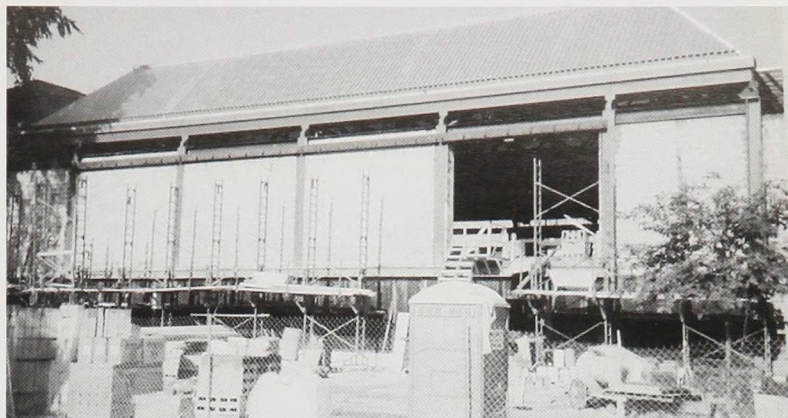

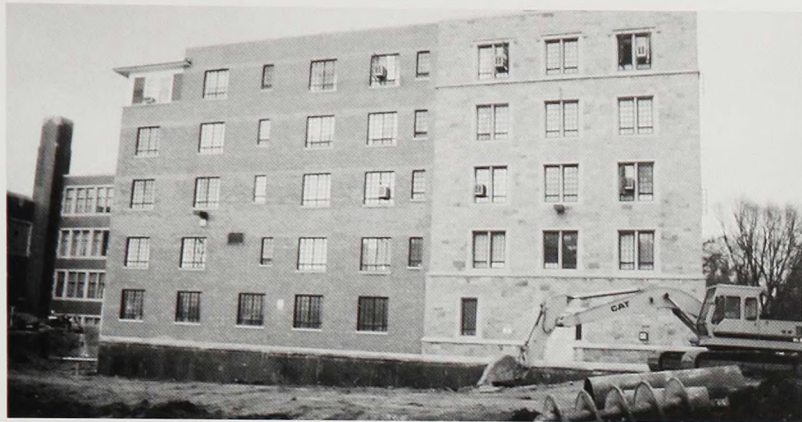

Working with the general contractor, Turner Construction, Fenwick's own project management team, led by Dr. Gerald F. Lordan and Mr. Ed Zvitkovits, set an ambitious timetable. When complete, this work will create a handicap accessible Link building, substantially expand and enhance the library, add a second gymnasium, and develop a 13 lane swimming pool within an enviable aquatics center. Completion for this building project is slated for 1999, with a winter ribbon cutting and blessing.

Costs for building this expansion will exceed $9.2 million. Contributions to the most ambitious capital campaign in Fenwick's history, Fenwick 2000: Building on Success will make the completion of this project a reality.

Additional emphasis in this fundraising effort, with a total goal of $12.1 million, has been given to both increasing financial aid for worthy Fenwick students and for enhancing the compensation offered to our remarkable faculty. These two worthy goals, held in equal importance to the expansion of Fenwick's physical plant, will begin to make a difference and will ensure that Fenwick maintains cultural and economic diversity as well as the highest quality faculty. This effort would not have gotten off the ground without the vision of Fenwick's Board of Trustees, the personal involvement of Fr. Daniel Davis, O.P., and the many countless hours spent by numerous members of the Fenwick administration. By completing this project, Fenwick now looks confidently to the future having put behind ourselves a significant, worthwhile effort.

"As we build the building, the building will build us!", says Dr. Gerald F. Lordan

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL

The softball team had an unbelievable fairy-tale season. The Friars finished their regular season with a record of 25-4-1. They also won their fourth consecutive East Suburban Catholic title. The best, however, was yet to come.

The 1998 Friar Softball Squad became the first girls' team to advance to the IHSA state finals. Reaching the final four with a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Stevenson to close with a 4th place finish in the IHSA state tournament. The spectacular season ended with a record of 31-6-1, but the season memories of what this team accomplished will live forever.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The girls' varsity basketball team had another banner year. The season began with a championship at the Deerfield Thanksgiving tournament. The team also proudly finished second place in the Dundee Crown Christmas Classic.

The Dream Games, hosted by Willowbrook High School, pitted the Fighting Friars against one of the teams from Indiana, Crown Point School. Not only were the girls victorious, but they scored the 400th career victory for Coach Dave Power.

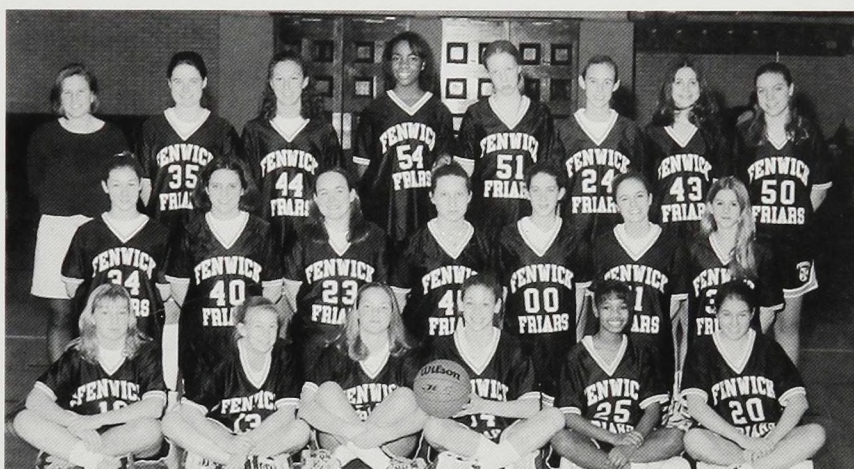

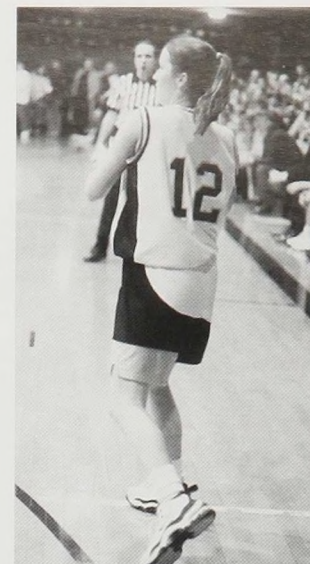

The Great Eight Tournament, featuring eight of the top teams in the Chicagoland area, saw the Friars finish in an impressive second place.

Four years ago, the Fenwick girls joined the East Suburban Catholic Conference. For the fourth year in a row, the basketball team has captured the conference title. The sophomore team also won their championship.

The state tournament run started with an IHSA Regional title over Proviso West and Immaculate Heart of Mary High School. The run sadly ended with a tough loss in the sectionals to Hindsdale Central.

All conference honors went to Brenna Smith, Katie O'Grady and Claudette Towers. Other players selected to All-Area teams included Devin Bernard, Katie Marino, Amy Hutchinson and Eloise Kucia.

Seniors Eloise Kucia, Brenna Smith, and Katie Marino will be greatly missed. However, as young stars emerge through Fenwick's basketball program, they will insure great seasons to come.
